

I want to express my support to restrict wide band modes on 160M to 1843 kHz and above. I believe this is very important for the future of ham radio and the CW mode.